Suppl. table S1. Frequencies of T cell subsets. Shown are the percentages of cells gated for the different T cell subsets. Parental gates are given between brackets. Specimens that were not available for research are left open. Subsets that could not be evaluated due to too low counts are indicated with “-”. Shaded rows represent those patients who died of the disease within the monitoring period.