

Table 1

Questionnaire data:

8 years parents answering, each question giving one point if yes in the asthma control score.

- Difficulties due to raspy or wheezy breathing more than 12 occasions the last 12 months?
- Has trouble with wheezy or raspy breathing affected daily activities in the last 12 months?
- Difficulties sleeping because of coughing or breathing difficulties at least monthly during in the last 12 months?
- Taken treatment with short acting bronchodilators routinely last 12 months?
- Sought care for an acute asthma attack at the: district medical office, the child clinic, hospital emergency room and/or admitted to the hospital for asthma the in the last 12 months (defined as “asthma exacerbation”)?

16 years both participant (children: Ch) answering or parents (P) answering separate questionnaires.

- (Ch) Difficulties due to raspy or wheezy breathing more than 12 occasions in the last 12 months?
- (Ch) Avoided doing things he/she would have liked to do because of wheezy or raspy breathing the last 12 months?
- (Ch) Have had trouble sleeping or woken up because of wheezy or raspy breathing in the last 12 months?
- (Ch) Taken treatment with short acting bronchodilators at least twice a week in the last 12 months?
- Sought care for an acute asthma attack (P) and/or taken per oral corticosteroids because of asthma or respiratory symptoms the in the last 12 months (P and/or Ch) (defined as “asthma exacerbation”)?

24 years only participant answering questionnaire

- Difficulties due to raspy or wheezy breathing more than 12 occasions in the last 12 months?
- Been hindered or felt restricted due to respiratory disorder when performing regular activities in the last 12 months?
- Have woken up because of wheezy or raspy breathing in last month and/or weekly during the last 12 months?
- Taken treatment with short acting bronchodilators at least twice a week in the last 12 months?
- Sought care for an acute asthma attack, been admitted to a hospital and/or taken per oral corticosteroids because of asthma or respiratory symptoms the in the last 12 months (defined as “asthma exacerbation”)?